PART 4 — REQUEST PROCEDURE

4.1 How to Submit a Request

Any person may request access to records held by Proaxis Solutions (Pty) Ltd by submitting a request to the Information Officer in the following ways:

Option A — Prescribed Form C Submit a completed Form C as prescribed under the PAIA Regulations. [VERIFY: current Form C and Regulation reference — available from the Information Regulator at www.inforegulator.org.za]

Option B — Written Request Submit a written request addressed to the Information Officer at the contact details in Part 1 of this manual. The written request must include:

1. The requestor's full name, contact details, and postal/email address for delivery of the response;
2. A description of the record(s) requested (with as much detail as possible to enable identification of the record);
3. The form in which the requestor wishes to receive access (e.g., inspection, photocopy, electronic copy);
4. If the requestor is making the request on behalf of another person, proof of that authority.

4.2 Access Fees

Access fees are payable as prescribed under the PAIA Regulations. [VERIFY: current prescribed fees via the Information Regulator. Fees are typically set by regulation and are subject to change.]

Note: Proaxis Solutions reserves the right to request payment of any applicable reproduction and access fees before providing access to records, in accordance with the prescribed fee schedule.

4.3 Response Timelines

Proaxis Solutions will respond to a request for access to information within the timeframes prescribed by PAIA. [VERIFY: current prescribed response periods — typically 30 days from receipt of the request, with possible extension of a further 30 days in prescribed circumstances.]

The Information Officer will:

1. Acknowledge receipt of the request;
 2. Notify the requestor of any applicable access fee;
 3. Decide whether to grant or refuse the request;
 4. Notify the requestor in writing of the decision and the reasons for it (if refused).

PART 5 — GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS

Access to records may be refused on the grounds set out in Chapter 4 of PAIA. [VERIFY: current provisions.] These grounds include, but are not limited to:

Ground	Description
Protection of personal information of third parties	Where disclosure would unreasonably disclose personal information of a third party
Protection of commercial information	Where records contain trade secrets or confidential commercial information
Protection of safety of individuals	Where disclosure could endanger the life or safety of any person
Protection of privileged legal communications	Legally privileged communications with an attorney
Protection of research information	Premature disclosure of unpublished research
Records not held	Where the record does not exist or is not held by Proaxis Solutions
Manifestly frivolous or vexatious requests	Requests made in bad faith or to harass

Where access is refused, the Information Officer will provide written reasons for the refusal, referencing the applicable PAIA provision.

PART 6 — REMEDIES IF ACCESS IS REFUSED

If a requestor is not satisfied with Proaxis Solutions' decision, the following remedies are available:

6.1 Internal Appeal There is no internal appeal mechanism prescribed for private bodies under PAIA. Proaxis Solutions will accept and consider any written representation from a requestor who believes a decision was made in error.

6.2 Application to the Information Regulator A requestor may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator of South Africa if they believe their request has been improperly refused. [VERIFY: current Information Regulator complaint procedure and contact details — www.inforegulator.org.za]

6.3 Court Application A requestor may approach a court with jurisdiction to review the decision to refuse access, in accordance with PAIA. [VERIFY: current PAIA court application provisions.]

PART 7 — PAIA AND POPIA CROSS-REFERENCE

Proaxis Solutions processes personal information in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA). The company's Privacy Notice and POPIA Policy are published on the company website at www.proaxissolutions.co.za.

Where a request for access to information relates to personal information about the requestor, such requests may be processed under both PAIA and POPIA as applicable.

The Information Officer (Reference: 2025-058837) is responsible for all requests under both PAIA and POPIA.

PART 8 — ANNUAL REVIEW AND UPDATES
